Weddings & Receptions at Tissington Hall

Entertaining since 1609

Exclusively yours, Tissington Hall in the beautiful Peak District National Park is an intimate and romantic setting for the most important day of your life.

Where fairytales become reality

Our licence allows couples to marry in the Main Hall, a dramatic stone flagged Jacobean hall with a superb 17th century Gothic fireplace or the East or West Drawing Rooms on the first floor overlooking the Rose Gardens. If the weather is fine, it is also possible to get married outside on the Terrace, with the wedding ceremony conducted under the Arcade.

Alternatively, it may be possible to marry in the beautiful Norman Church of St. Mary in the village of Tissington, just a short walk from the Hall.

After the wedding ceremony, a summer drinks reception is usually held in the Rose Gardens. As the warm evening sunshine sets slowly over the arboretum, the heady scent of roses lingers in the air. The background tinkle of champagne glasses and the lilting notes from a string quartet create a magical atmosphere. This is also a dramatic setting for your photographs. Guests then make their way through the gardens to the 10-acre arboretum where our new Arboretum Pavilion is sited amongst the trees.

Our excellent caterers, The Red Olive (www.theredolive.co.uk) have been selected because they offer fantastic food, the highest standards of service and competitive prices. They offer a flexible range of served and buffet menus to suit your taste and budget and will be happy to meet you and discuss your plans in more detail.

The Red Olive also provide a range of wines and champagnes that are carefully selected and sensibly priced, or you can bring your own and they will charge a modest corkage fee to cover the cost of storage, cooling and service.

Sample Red Olive menus:

Blini topped with smoked salmon and horseradish soured cream

Fillet of beef with a bordelaise sauce

Apple tart tatin with toffee sauce and honeycombed ice cream

Twice baked cheese and spinach soufflé

Rack of lamb with a herb crust

Tasting plate of desserts:

Chocolate marquise – lemon curd tart – Red fruit Pavlova

Please feel free to contact Charlie at The Red Olive to discuss your individual requirements.

"Tissington was absolutely the right choice as our wedding venue; it is stylish, has character and charm, yet is also intimate and welcoming. No other venue in The Midlands comes close as far as I'm concerned, it was an easy choice. We felt like film stars all day."
